I have lectured and written articles on topics related to Insurance, Reinsurance, Commercial issues, Litigation, Arbitration, Mediation and other aspects of the practice of law and Alternate Dispute Resolution. In 1976 I authored a prominent article defining the 'Duties of a Primary Insurer to the Excess Insurer' which was published in the Defense Research Institutes Monograph and thereafter has been frequently updated in various lectures and articles discussing the duties and obligations of both the Primary and Excess Insurer.

The foregoing summary is intended to be generally indicative of the scope and experience of the service areas in which I performed as an Attorney and Consultant for over forty-seven years. I am presently retired from active practice and will apply my knowledge and experience, gained over years of active participation in numerous and often high profile disputes, to the role of a Neutral in Arbitration proceedings or as a Mediator.

I trust that the foregoing information is sufficient to allow you to evaluate my qualifications to act in such Arbitration and Mediation matters in which you may be considering retaining my services as a Third Party Neutral. If you require any further information or references they are available upon Request.
